SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information.—EDITOR.

DEATH ROLL

THE Editor of the General Minutes desires to make a complete record of those ministers who have died during the year. It is not a complete success up to this time. The Conference Secretaries do not fill the blank that is sent them, hence the many vacant spaces. May we not give a little more attention to the going of these men by preserving this one brief line fully filled out?

BISHOP MERRIMAN COLBERT HARRIS, D.D., LL.D.

Bishop Merriman Colbert Harris, D.D., LL.D., was born July 9, 1846, at Beallsville, O., and died in Tokyo, Japan, May 8, 1921. The larger part of the life of Bishop Harris was spent in Japan, so it was only the occasional visits to the homeland that brought him into personal contact with the Methodists of the United States.

The Editor feels that he can best present a few characteristic traits of this splendid Christian man, by condensing the address of Bishop Welch at his funeral in Tokyo on May 11, 1921. He called him "The lover of mankind."

Love was the secret of his power. Children who could not comprehend his speech would hang upon his words because of the winsome smile that accompanied them. His countenance glowed with good humor like to the spirit within.

Love made him generous. He was free to the bounds of lavishness. He gave of money, time, and home ungrudgingly, and his open-handed liberality was like the rains of God upon the just and unjust alike.

Love made him sympathetic. He had the rare gift of entering into the woes of others, bearing their griefs and carrying their sorrows. His was the heart that could soothe and sympathize.

Love made him loyal. He was true to his friends and loyal to the two lands which he joyously claimed as his own. To the people of the East he had all good to tell of America, and to the Americans he had nothing but good to say of Japan and Korea. It may well be questioned whether during the last twenty years any foreigner living in Japan has been known and trusted and loved by so many Japanese people as Bishop Harris.

Love made him optimistic. He saw nothing but hopeful things. There never was anything dark or gloomy in his spirit. The insight of love gave him an unfailing optimism. Love made him inspiring, and at his touch men were wrought up to hear the distant triumph song. In his life love was "the greatest thing in the world."

While this was true he was not a laggard in knowledge; he had a vast store of information and preserved an open mind for the best things the world of information could bring to him.

Such love comes not merely from choice, but as the gift of God. A portion of it may be inherited, but he had a splendid Christian ancestry. With that as a beginning he built a character in harmony with all his early teachings and with the manifestation of the spirit of grace in his heart.

Thus has passed away one of the most beautiful spirits, full of evangelism, in which he reached out the hand of love toward the people of those great eastern empires, that he might win them to Him who so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son to bring them into the fellowship of light and life.
